REYNOLDS HISTORICAL
GENEALOGY COLLECTION

This work could not have been published without the help of the following people: Frank Ramsey, who took over my duties at home, chauffered, spent endless hours proof-reading, and lastly, printed it; Flossie Scofield who took most of her days off for many months to copy from the original records with her most faithful copiers Mary Ida Grubb, Lueta Kellerby and Helen Long and the other "little old ladies";Judge Dwain Spoon and secretary Jean McClure who smiled and helped the seemingly endless stream of copiers into the vault; 'Red' and Shirley Hanson, owners of The Neodesha Register, for allowing me unlimited use of their newspaper files; and lastly, all the people in the phone books with the same surname as the pioneers, who answered my questions, dug up family Bibles and histories with unfailing courtesy, and in most cases without ever really understanding what for but wanting to help nevertheless.

In using this book bear in mind that most of our marriage officials were sober, pious men who had fairy-like flights of fancy when compelled to take pen in hand and spell, so check all possible spellings when searching. These listings are as they appeared on the records with cross-references when too far out of line. The grooms are alphabetical, name, followed by age, residence, bride's name, age, residence, marriage date, official and when possible, birthplace, father and mother. The ministers etc. are given briefly in the listings and as complete as possible in the third section. The brides are listed alphabetically with page number in the second section.

Divorces were not at all unusual, in some months they outnumbered the marriages. It appears to have been the fashion to obtain a divorce, take back the maiden name, BUT retain the title of Mrs. There are a great many instances of this in the book so if you can't find the maiden name, look for the married name.

ABBREVIATIONS

Aff. .....affadavit	m/ ..... mother
b. .... . . .born	m. ..... marriage/married
B- .....bride	_____ underlined-spelling
f/ ..... father	uncertain, unusual, confirmed,
G- ..... groom	to bring attention to.

( ) not on original records, from family, newspapers, others.

Example: G-b. Ind., f/John, m/Sarah Narcho means the groom was born in Indiana, his father was John, his mother Sarah, last name uncertain.

The following is a list of the men who officiated at marriages. After their names is listed their denomination if a minister, and town or area their church or court was located in. In some cases all we have is their name, since they didn't have to be ordained by a church but if they felt the call, just took "office". Some from neighboring counties are also listed since they did perform a lot of marriages for Wilson Co. people. The following abreviations are used: Cath-Catholic, Chn-Christian, C of C-Church of Christ, C of G-Church of God, Cong-Congregation, CP-Cumberland Presbyterian, Bapt-Baptist, Eld-Elder, Epis-Episcopal, Evang-Evangalist, Judge-Probate Judge, JP-Justice of Peace, Luth-Lutheran, Meth-Methodist, ME-Methodist Episcopal, M-Minister, Presby-Presbyterian, UB-United Brethren, VDM-Vice Deacon Minister.
